This lovely stone built country house has been renovated to a high standard incorporating some great features and still retains that perfect country feel.

Situated on a 30,000m² plot with views of all the surrounding countryside this house comprises good sized entrance porch/ sitting area with large glass windows, entrance hall area, an open plan sitting room with steps up to the dining area and kitchen. In the centre of these areas is an enormous log burner which will heat all this space. There are two good sized bedrooms on the ground floor, one of which features an original stone wall, a family bathroom with walk in shower.

Tiled stairs lead to a large double on the first floor.

Outside there is a detached garage and the land has mature trees
