Uleila del Campo

.The house is situated on a huge plot of flat land with distant mountain views, mature olive and almond trees surround the property. It was originally the largest farm in the area, employing many locals. It could be restored and would make a perfect location for a horse riding holiday centre, Hostal Rural or a rural retreat. The land is ideal for horses with access to miles of trails.

Mains electric is connected, there is a bore hole on the land which has run dry, but with additional depth drilling could be restored. This finca has great character and potential for renovation, must be viewed to be appreciated in all it's glory. Water needs to be connected, mains electric installed.
